RE: MUR 4808

Dear Mr. Moukawsher:

On May 23, 2000, the Federal Election Commission reviewed the allegations in your complaint dated September 10, 1998, and the responses thereto. Based on the information provided in your complaint and the information provided by the Connecticut AFL-CIO; Labor 98; Miles S. Rapoport; Rapoport for the First; and its treasurer, the Commission determined that there is no reason to believe the aforementioned respondents violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). Accordingly, on May 23, 2000, the Commission closed the file in this matter. A Statement of Reasons providing a basis for the Commission's decision will follow.

The Act allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(8).

Sincerely,

Lawrence M. Noble
General Counsel
